"AN ACT CONCERNING A SECOND CHANCE SOCIETY."

1 Strike subsection (c) of section 4 in its entirety and insert the 2 following in lieu thereof:

3 "(c) Upon the effectuation of the transfer, such child or young adult 4 shall stand trial and be sentenced, if convicted, as if such child [were 5 eighteen years of age] or young adult were an age for adult
6 jurisdiction, subject to the provisions of section 54-91g. Such child or 7 young adult shall receive credit against any sentence imposed for time 8 served in a juvenile or detention facility prior to the effectuation of the 9 transfer. A child or young adult who has been transferred may enter a 10 guilty plea to a lesser offense if the court finds that such plea is made 11 knowingly and voluntarily. Any child or young adult transferred to 12 the regular criminal docket who pleads guilty to a lesser offense shall 13 not resume such [child's] person's status as a juvenile regarding such 14 offense. If the action is dismissed or nolleed or if such child or young

15 adult is found not guilty of the charge for which such child or young 16 adult was transferred or of any lesser included offenses, the child or 17 young adult shall resume such [child's] person's status as a juvenile 18 until such [child] person attains the age [of eighteen years] for adult 19 jurisdiction."
